PREAMBLE

This Agreement made Between
B.C. RAPID TRANSIT COMPANY LIMITED
(hereinafter called the "Company")
and
CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES
LOCAL 7000
(hereinafter called the "Union")

1. Term of Agreement

- (a) Subject to paragraph 1(b) the term of this Collective Agreement shall be from September 1, 2023 to August 31, 2028. The Parties shall thereafter from year to year be bound by this Collective Agreement.
- (b) Upon the conclusion of the term of this Agreement and until a new agreement is reached, the Union may strike and/or the Company may lockout but it is understood and agreed that any time prior to a new agreement being reached, if no strike or lockout is in effect, the Parties will be bound by this Collective Agreement.
- (c) The Parties agree to exclude the operation of Section 50(1) and 50(2) of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia.

- 2. Either Party may, at any time, give to the other Party four (4) months or more written notice of its intention to re-open the Agreement on that date or any day thereafter. The Agreement shall be reopened on the date specified in such notice.

3. Letters of Understanding – Agreement

Letters attached to this Agreement are included in and form part of the Agreement as long as each Letter is effective.

- 4. Wherever the singular is used in this Agreement the same shall be construed as meaning the plural where the context or the Parties hereto so require.

5. Seniority (Bargaining Unit)

Where the words "bargaining unit" or "Union" are used in this Agreement, such reference shall be deemed to mean CUPE Local 7000 members employed by the Company and covered by the certificate referred to in Article 1.02 of this Agreement.

6. Joint Standing Committees

Joint Standing Committees shall be instituted and continued on a variety of matters. In the event that an Employee Security Committee meeting is held outside of a committee member's normal working hours such time will be paid at straight time.

- 7. All references to "days" means "working days"; references to "years" means "calendar years".

- 8. This is and will remain a degendered document.

9. Spouse

"Spouse" shall mean: a person who is not a member and who is legally married to, or who has cohabited as a spousal partner with the member for a period of not less than twelve (12) consecutive months. An employee may not claim to have both a spouse to who they are legally married and a spouse with who they are in a common-law relationship. Discontinuance of cohabitation for a period of more than thirty (30) consecutive days shall terminate the eligibility for benefits of common-law or same sex spouse. Only one (1) spouse is eligible for spousal benefit coverage at the same time.

ARTICLE 1.00
UNION AND MANAGEMENT RECOGNITION AND RIGHTS
(Also refer to LOU #24)

1.01 Purpose

- (a) The purpose of this Agreement is to maintain a harmonious relationship between the Company and its employees to further to the fullest extent possible the safety and welfare of the employees and to establish and maintain orderly collective bargaining procedures between the Company and the Union.
- (b) The Parties to this Agreement share a desire to provide a high level of service to the Company's customers, to foster efficient productive results, and to ensure economy of operation, quality of work, and protection of lives and property. Accordingly, the Parties are determined to establish, within the framework provided by the law, an effective working relationship at all levels of BC Rapid Transit Company Limited in which members of the bargaining unit are employed.

1.02 Scope

This Agreement shall apply to and be binding upon all employees of the Company described in a certification issued to the Union on April 23, 1999 and which are those "employed in any phase of office, clerical, technical, and administrative work except those excluded by the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia, and shall continue to apply to said certification as the same may be amended from time to time."

1.03 Savings

Should any provision or portion hereof be rendered invalid or materially altered by existing or subsequent enacted legislation, judgement, or order of a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect for the term of the Agreement. The Parties hereto shall negotiate a mutually agreeable provision to be substituted for the provision so rendered null and void or materially altered.

1.04 Fair Practice

(a) Fair Practice

Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, neither the Union nor the Company in carrying out their obligations under this Agreement shall discriminate in matters of hiring, training, promotion, transfer, lay off, discharge or otherwise, because of race, ancestry, conviction for an offence (unrelated to employment), family status, mental disability, physical disability, political belief, colour, religion, place of origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or marital status; now and as provided within the Human Rights Code of British Columbia.

(b) Equal Pay

The Company shall not discriminate between employees by employing a person of a gender for any work at a rate of pay that is less than the rate of pay at which a person of another gender is employed in the same job classification.

1.05 Recognition

(a) Recognition

- (i) The Company recognizes the CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES, LOCAL 7000 as the exclusive bargaining agent for all employees to whom the certification issued by the Industrial Relations Board on April 23, 1999 applies.
- (ii) The Company also recognizes any employee elected or appointed to act as a full-time officer of the Union and such officer shall be granted access to the premises at all reasonable times upon application to the appropriate Company official.
- (iii) The Company agrees to the placement of a CUPE – LOCAL 7000 logo of approximately three (3) inches by five (5) inches supplied by the Union on the inside of each train, in a position that is visible and easily maintained. The decal will also read "These trains are operated and maintained by CUPE members."

(b) Correspondence

- (i) The Company agrees that all correspondence between the Company and the Union related to matters covered in this Agreement as it applies to the employees, shall be sent to the President of the Union or designate within ten (10) days of the creation of the correspondence.

- (ii) The Company agrees that a copy of any correspondence between the Company and any employee in the bargaining unit covered by this Agreement, pertaining to the interpretation or application of any clause in the Agreement as it applies to that employee, shall be forwarded to the President of the Union or designate within ten (10) days of the creation of the correspondence.

(c) No Other Agreements

- (i) No employee covered by this Agreement shall be required or permitted to make a written or an oral agreement with the Company or its representative which conflicts with the terms of this Agreement.
- (ii) Upon request, the Company will forward to the Union copies of letters of offer for Temporary employees covered under this certification.

(d) Bulletin Boards

The Company shall provide bulletin board facilities for the exclusive use of the Union, the sites to be determined by mutual agreement. The use of such bulletin board facilities shall be restricted to the business affairs of the Union.

(e) No Discrimination

The Company agrees that there shall be no discrimination of any kind against any employee because of membership in the Union.

1.06 Recognition and Rights of Stewards

- (a) The Company recognizes the Union's right to select Stewards to represent employees. The Company and the Union will agree on the number of Stewards, taking into account both operational and geographical considerations.
- (b) The Union agrees to provide the Company with a list of the employees designated as Stewards for each jurisdictional area.
- (c) A Steward or alternate shall obtain the permission of the immediate supervisor before leaving work to perform duties as a Steward. Leave for this purpose shall be with pay. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld. On resuming normal duties, the Steward shall notify the supervisor.
- (d) The duties of Stewards shall include:
 - (i) investigation of complaints;
 - (ii) resolving grievances and assisting any employee whom the Steward represents in presenting a grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure;
 - (iii) distribution of Union information;
 - (iv) attending meetings at the request of the Company;
 - (v) assist employees with EFAP referrals and job evaluations.

1.07 Leave for Union Business

Properly qualified officers or representatives shall be granted leave of absence to carry out their duties insofar as the regular operation of the departments in which they are employed will permit and any application by them for such leave shall be given precedence over any other application for leave on the same day.

Should the departmental requirements preclude the Company from being able to accommodate a request for Union leave, the Union will be notified immediately. The Union will then have the option of cancelling the leave request or proceeding. In the event the Union chooses to proceed with the request, the Company will attempt to arrange for equivalent coverage and, if successful, will recover from the Union the cost of the replacement employee's wages. Replacement coverage will be filled in accordance with the terms of the Collective Agreement.

It is agreed that the following conditions will apply subject to departmental requirements:

- (a) The Company will release the Executive Job Steward, up to one (1) day per week each with pay to a maximum of two (2) days total, in order to perform Union duties. Such day to be mutually agreed to by the parties. In the case that the Executive Job Stewards work in the same department, these days may not overlap. When a leave of absence for an Executive Job Steward exceeds one (1) day in succession, the Company will recover from the Union the cost of any wages in excess of one (1) day, plus the applicable loading factor.

The Company will pay wages for one (1) day a month to a maximum of one hundred and twenty (120) hours per year for the position of the Union President.

- (b) The Company will not charge the Union for salaries of employees excused from work on Union business by arrangement with the Labour Relations Director or designate where such time is one (1) day or less, or where it involves joint union-management committees or government sponsored conferences; for example, Labour-Management conferences.
- (c) The Union may request leaves of absence, of one (1) day or less with pay, in order that Union Officers and/or Job Stewards may attend Union Executive, Job Steward meetings, or perform Union duties.
 - (i) In all of these cases, the Union will endeavour to provide each supervisor with a minimum of one (1) weeks' notice of a request for leave of absence.
 - (ii) When a leave of absence exceeds one (1) day in succession for any Union Officer, steward, or representative, (other than the Executive Job Steward), the Company will recover from the Union the cost of wages including an applicable loading factor for the total length of the leave.
- (d) The parties agree that the number of Job Stewards and Officers of the Union shall not exceed sixty (60) for the current size of the bargaining unit, this will increase to sixty-five (65) effective September 1, 2026. The distribution of such will take into account both operational and geographical considerations. However, should:
 - (i) the number of members increase, or
 - (ii) the work locations change substantially, the parties agree to meet to review the number of Job Stewards/Union Officers and their area of representation.

1.08 Leave for Full-time Officers

- (a) Employees who are acting as full-time officers or representatives of the Union (but excluding Union clerical staff) will be placed on leave of absence with the time involved considered as service with the Company. On conclusion of such leave of absence employees will return to the position they previously held with the Company.
- (b) Leave of absence in accordance with the foregoing will also be granted for a period of two (2) years for members appointed or elected to positions with the CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES.
- (c) For those filling elected positions in the CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES, the leave of absence will be reviewed every two (2) years.
- (d) The Company will cooperate with full-time officers or full-time representatives of the Union in performing their Union responsibilities.

1.09 Obligations, Rights and Responsibilities

- (a) Obligations and Responsibilities
The Company and employees agree that both have obligations and responsibilities to ensure that the public is provided with a safe, efficient light rapid transit system.
- (b) Management Rights
It is agreed that management, supervision and control of the Company's operations and direction of the working force is an exclusive management function. This includes among other things without restricting the foregoing, the exclusive right to determine:
 - (i) the employment, complement and organization of employees necessary to carry on the business and operations of the Company, and
 - (ii) the work methods and procedures applicable in the provision of light rapid transit services, and
 - (iii) the hiring of all employees and the right to establish work rules for scheduling, directing, and transferring employees from one job function to another. Management shall have the right to promote, demote, lay off, terminate, suspend, and discipline any employee for just cause. It is agreed that these functions will be exercised in a manner consistent with the terms of this Agreement.

1.10 Bargaining Unit Work

(a) Bargaining Unit Work

Duties normally performed by employees within the bargaining unit will not be assigned to or be performed by non-bargaining unit employees except:

- (i) to overcome immediate short-term operational or personnel difficulties when bargaining unit employees capable of performing the work are not available; or
- (ii) for training purposes; or
- (iii) for other unforeseen circumstances mutually agreed to by the Parties. It is understood that such agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld.

Any difference or dispute with respect to the interpretation or application of the foregoing shall be dealt with under the Grievance Procedure as set out in Article 3.02 of this Agreement. Should the matter be referred to Arbitration, and it is determined that a violation has occurred, the arbitrator may make an order which he/she considers fair and reasonable, having regard to the terms of this Collective Agreement.

(b) Jurisdiction of New Jobs

The Company will advise the Union of the introduction of all new jobs, exempt or otherwise, and provide a draft job description for the new job with enough advance notice to facilitate meaningful discussion before implementation or posting.

New Jobs will be a standing item on the Labour Management meeting agenda for discussion between the Parties.

Should the Parties disagree on the jurisdiction of a new job, the Company may fill the position in the normal manner and the Union may refer the matter as a dispute to the appropriate agent or agency that retains the final binding authority to determine the jurisdiction of new jobs.

However, should there be a subsequent declaration that the job is in the bargaining unit as a result of a challenge by the Union, the job will be posted as a vacancy and the incumbent will have no vested rights to the position unless otherwise agreed by the Parties.

1.11 Contracted Services

The Company will not contract out work normally performed by any existing bargaining unit employee(s) if such contracting-out will result in any termination, layoff, or downgrading of any existing employee(s).

A joint committee will be formed to review the Company's requirements for contracted services, discuss options for bringing work in house, and review alternatives to contracting work out.

The joint committee will consist of three (3) representatives from the Union and three (3) representatives from the Company.

The committee will meet not less than once every three (3) months or more often if needed with the goal to bring in third party contract work, or bring in work which is currently being sub- contracted. The parties will meet to discuss contracting in work which is currently contracted out. Where practical, prior to the Company contracting out any work which can be performed by the members of the bargaining unit, the Committee shall meet to discuss contracting in the work. Where practicable, the Union shall be given the opportunity within a reasonable amount of time to make a presentation to the Company prior to the Company contracting out.

The Company agrees to share all relevant information with the Union for the purpose of completing reviews.

1.12 No Strike – No Lockout

It is the intent of the Parties to assure uninterrupted transit service to the public during the life of this Agreement.

During the life of this Agreement, the Union will not authorize any strike or walkout and the Company will not cause any lockout.

Any employees covered by this Agreement shall have the right to refuse to cross a picket line arising out of a dispute as defined in the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia. Any employee failing to report for duty shall be considered absent without pay.

This period excludes time spent in classroom training (to a maximum of eighty [80] hours) as provided in Article 7.01. An employee hired to fill a part-time ongoing position vacated by a part-time regular employee or to fill a part-time position which is of a continuing nature.

By agreement with the Union, the Company may hire a part-time temporary to fill a position vacated by a part-time regular employee.

Unless otherwise agreed with the Union, part-time regular employees will work according to an assigned schedule to provide staffing for peak operation requirements but will not work more than thirty (30) hours per week, except that part-time regular employees covered by Article 12, who have an unbalanced schedule, may work up to sixty (60) hours per pay period, providing their shift does not exceed five (5) working days in a week or ten (10) hours in a day.

In addition, a part-time regular employee may relieve a full-time employee on leave of absence, training, sick leave, lieu days or annual vacation, without change to full-time regular status. The Company agrees to advise the Union of all such assignments in excess of five (5) days.

In departments with more than one part-time regular employee, the Company will endeavour to equitably distribute, on an annual basis, the regularly scheduled hours for all part-timers in the same job classification within such departments.

In addition they agree, wherever practical, to combine existing part-time jobs to create as many full-time positions as possible.

In order to cooperate in this endeavour the Union agrees to waive the requirement to post vacancies under Article 7.10 and the Company agrees to offer these full-time vacancies to the current part-time SkyTrain Attendants, in the order of their seniority.

New employees will be considered probationary for a period of five hundred (500) actual hours worked, excluding time spent in classroom training (to a maximum of eighty [80] hours) as provided in Article 7.01. The employee will participate in Benefit Plans in accordance with Articles 15, 21 and 26.

Annual vacation entitlements shall be earned on a pro-rated basis in accordance with their regularly scheduled shift hours.

Payment for annual vacation and statutory holidays will be made in the pay period in which they are taken and will be pro-rated in accordance with their regularly scheduled work hours. An adjustment will be made at vacation year end to provide 6%, 8%, 10%, 12%, 12.4%, 12.8%, 13.2%, 13.6%, or 14% of gross earnings, depending on their entitlement for vacation pay and 4.61% of gross earnings for statutory holiday pay.

(c) Full-Time/Part-Time Temporary Employees

An employee hired full-time or part-time to perform work of a temporary nature in connection with a specific project(s), work overload or seasonal peaks for a period of less than one (1) year or other situations mutually agreed by the Parties. The employee will be paid the rate for the job. The employee will participate in Benefit Plans in accordance with Articles 15 and 21 but will not be eligible for Long Term Disability until the employee attains regular status.

An employee hired on this basis will be informed of the projected length of employment and work to a specific work schedule. Such schedule may be amended upon forty-eight (48) hours' notice to the employee.

The Company will provide the Union with a list of jobs which are being filled by an employee hired under this basis. The list shall include the projected length of the job and will be updated monthly.

Unless otherwise agreed prior to commencement of the assignment, an employee hired on a temporary basis will either be terminated or will achieve regular status on completion of one (1) year of continuous service. If the decision is to continue the employment relationship, the employee shall be considered to have regular status from the commencement of such temporary employment. Should the employee be terminated, the Company can not rehire the employee, as a temporary, for a term of two (2) months from the date of termination.

3.03 Employee Grievance(s)

Preamble

It is the mutual desire of the Parties that complaints and grievances shall be adjusted as quickly as possible. It is understood that a complaint does not become a grievance until the employee has first given the immediate supervisor the opportunity to address the complaint.

(a) Complaints

An employee may have a Job Steward present at any discussion dealing with a complaint. Where an employee has a complaint, the employee will meet and discuss such complaint with the immediate supervisor in an effort to resolve the complaint. Such discussion will take place not later than ten (10) days from the date the employee became aware of the event causing the complaint.

(b) Step I

Should a complaint be unresolved, it may be submitted in writing by the Union to the immediate supervisor and supervisor's superior. This must be done not later than ten (10) days from the date the complaint was first discussed under the complaint procedure. The Parties shall meet within ten (10) days of the Union submitting to Step I and the supervisor and/or the supervisor's superior shall provide a written answer within ten (10) days of such meeting.

(c) Step II

Should a grievance be unresolved at Step II, it may be referred by written notice to Step III within ten (10) days of receipt of the Company's Step II reply.

- (d) (i) Notwithstanding 3.02(b) and 3.03(c) above, the Parties agree to the following provisions for a mutually agreed upon Grievance Mediator. Said mediator may be requested by the Parties to assist in the resolution of disputes which remain unresolved after the completion of Step II of the Union/Company grievance procedure.
- (ii) This procedure is not intended to replace the grievance and Arbitration procedures provided for in this Agreement.
- (iii) Either Party may request that a grievance be referred to mediation provided that such request is made within ten (10) days of the receipt of an answer at Step II of the grievance procedure. Any such request is subject to the mutual agreement of the Parties.
- (iv) Where it is mutually agreed that a grievance is to be referred to mediation, then the time limits for referring that grievance to Arbitration shall be suspended pending the outcome of the mediation process, at which time the time limits present in Article 3.03(c) of the Collective Agreement shall be in force.
- (v) The role of the mediator shall be to review the positions of both Parties and to make written recommendations. It is understood that said recommendations shall not be binding upon the Parties unless mutually agreed otherwise.
- (vi) For the duration of this Agreement, the mediators shall be mutually agreed to by the Parties.
- (vii) The Parties agree that all costs and expenses related to this process will be shared 50/50 by the Parties.

(e) Step III - Arbitration

- (i) All grievances submitted to Arbitration shall be adjudicated by a single Arbitrator. The Parties to the Agreement shall attempt to agree on naming the Arbitrator as soon as the grieving Party has submitted notice, in writing, of its decision to proceed to Arbitration. Should the Parties fail to reach agreement within seven (7) days of such notice, upon the request of either Party, the necessary appointment shall be made by the Minister of Labour. The Arbitrator shall proceed as soon as practical to examine the grievance and render a judgement, and the decision shall be final and binding on the Parties and the employee(s) affected by it.
- (ii) The findings and decisions of the Arbitrator shall be binding and enforceable on all Parties.
- (iii) Each Party shall pay one-half (½) of the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator including any disbursements incurred by Arbitration proceedings.
- (iv) Where the Arbitrator determines that dismissal or discipline is excessive in all circumstances of the case, the Arbitrator may substitute such other penalty for dismissal, suspension or discipline as the Arbitrator considers just and reasonable in all the circumstances.
- (v) The Arbitrator's decision shall be governed by the provisions of this Agreement. The Arbitrator shall not be vested with the power to change, modify, or alter this Agreement in any of its parts, but may interpret its provisions.
- (vi) Where the Arbitrator, the Labour Relations Board, or other body finds that an employee has been dismissed, suspended, or otherwise disciplined for other than just and reasonable cause, the Arbitrator, the Labour Relations Board, or other body may:
- (a) direct the Company to reinstate the employee and pay to the employee a sum equal to the wages lost by reason of the dismissal, suspension or other discipline or such lesser sum as, in the opinion of the Arbitrator, the Labour Relations Board, or other body, as the case may be, is fair and reasonable, or
- (b) make such other order as it considers fair and reasonable, having regard to the terms of the Collective Agreement.

3.04 Expedited Arbitration

If a difference arises between the Parties relating to the dismissal, discipline, or suspension of an employee, or to the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, during the term of the Collective Agreement, a third party mutually agreed to by the Parties, shall at the request of either Party:

- (a) investigate the difference;
- (b) define the issue in the difference; and
- (c) make written recommendation to resolve the difference within thirty (30) days of the date of receipt of the request, and, for those thirty (30) days from that date, time does not run in respect of the grievance procedure.

3.05 Time Limits

Where the time limits mentioned in this section are not met by the grieving Party, the grievance shall be deemed to be abandoned and may not thereafter be reinstituted. This provision should not be used to deny any employee rights under the Provincial Labour Statutes. Failure to respond where required by the grievance procedure within the time specified will be deemed to be a referral to the next stage of the grievance procedure.

Notwithstanding the above, time limits may be extended by mutual written consent of the Company and the Union.

3.06 Discipline, Termination, Suspension Grievances

- (a) It is the intention of the Parties that corrective action, if necessary, be aimed constructively at assisting employees to solve problems of performance and/or conduct.

Accordingly, it is agreed that a positive discipline approach shall be used by the Company in dealing with disciplinary matters.

Any grievance dealing with discipline, termination or suspension may begin at Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure.

- (b) Any discharged or suspended employee may within seventy-two (72) hours of discharge or suspension, in writing, require the Company to provide the reasons for the discharge or suspension and the Company will give such reasons in writing within seventy-two (72) hours of request.

- (d) Where an employee has been temporarily promoted or transferred to a supervisory or non-bargaining unit position as provided for in Article 6.11, the six (6) months referred to in 6.10(a) (b) and (c) will be reduced by the total amount of time spent in the same excluded position over the previous twelve (12) months.

6.11 Temporary Transfers to Excluded Positions

All regular status employees, temporarily promoted or transferred to a supervisory or non-bargaining unit position will be considered to be on leave of absence from the bargaining unit for the term of the assignment.

Leaves of absence from the bargaining unit for the above reasons in excess of six (6) months (1040 actual hours worked, prorated for part-time employees) in duration or that total more than six (6) months (1040 actual hours worked, prorated for part-time employees) in the last twelve (12) months (2080 actual hours worked, prorated for part-time employees) must be approved by the Union. Union approval will not be unreasonably withheld. Employees who do not return to their bargaining unit position in accordance with this article are deemed to have left the bargaining unit.

In the event the vacancy created by the temporary promotion or transfer is to be filled, it shall be posted. Such posted vacancies shall be filled in accordance with Article 7.10.

The employee will continue to pay dues based on the wage rate held in the temporary position. It is agreed that such leaves of absence shall be automatically cancelled in the event of a legal strike or lock-out.

During the leave of absence, employees shall continue to be covered by Articles 2, 3, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 19 of the Agreement insofar as they affect the employee's status within the bargaining unit. Otherwise, the employee, during the period of assignment, shall be covered by the policies and procedures covering exempt employees.

6.12 Relief Supervisors (NEW)

When required by the Company, employees shall be offered the assignment of Relief Supervisor. Two of the main purposes of the Relief Supervisor position are:

- (a) To provide relief supervisory coverage in the absence of a Regular Supervisor, subject to the terms of Article 6.11; and,
- (b) To allow the Company and the employee to test the suitability of the position and the individual.

Relief Supervisors shall perform the tasks normally carried out by Supervisors such as organize and direct staff, as well as attend meetings on their behalf.

During such temporary promotions out of the bargaining unit, Relief Supervisors shall not undertake disciplinary action. They will, however, be expected to respond to all issues and deal with them appropriately. Situations which may warrant investigation to determine if disciplinary action is appropriate shall be reported by the Relief Supervisor to the appropriate Manager for action.

Thereafter, they shall receive one hundred percent (100%) of the rate for the position as listed in Appendix A. The ninety percent (90%) will apply to the positions listed in Article 12.01, and any positions working on Sunday due to an authorized variation in Article 10. - (b) A statutory holiday shall be considered a working day in determining promotion.

- (b) In the case of a demotion directly ascribable to the employee; for example, through choice or as a result of inadequate performance, the following policy will apply:
 - (i) Employees upon demotion shall receive the rate for the job they are moving to.
 - (ii) Under special circumstances, including health cases, the rate in the lower-paid job will be negotiated by the Parties.

 - (ii) Said employee has had no performance problems identified.

7.09 Preference in Appointments

It is the intent of the Parties that preference in appointments to the Company's job vacancies under Union jurisdictions, shall be given to CUPE LOCAL 7000 members presently on the Company's staff, in this order:

- (a) Regular employees and temporary employees with one (1) year's accredited service in the two (2) years immediately preceding the job vacancy;
- (b) Full-time/part-time temporary employees with less than one (1) year of service.

If at any time the Union is of the opinion that such preference has not been given, and the Company selects from outside the bargaining unit, the Union shall have the right to grieve such selection.

7.10 Job Posting

- (a) When a position becomes vacant, the Company agrees to post the vacancy within twenty-one (21) days if the position is to be filled. The Company will advise the Union as to whether the position is to be filled at any time during this period, upon request.

All Union job vacancies shall be posted on Company bulletin boards for ten (10) calendar days with the exception of the following:

- (i) Temporary vacancies involving summer relief of duration of less than three (3) months or others mutually agreed to by the Company and the Union. It is the intent of the Parties, however, that subject to the requirements of the department and when bargaining unit employees in the department capable of performing the work are available, such vacancies will be filled by means of internal promotion from within the department in accordance with Article 7.10(d).

Selections made under this provision will only be grievable by other members of the department from which the selection was made.

- (b) The job posting shall contain all pertinent details, such as job title, date of job description, rate of pay, (where not established will be subject to negotiations), replacement or addition to staff or new position, number of positions, duties, qualifications, headquarters, job location, special conditions, and the closing date of the competition.
- (c) The Company will provide the Union with copies of all job postings, the list of all applicants and their seniority dates and a list of successful applicants, upon request to the Labour Relations Director or designate. The Company shall acknowledge receipt of each application for a posted job vacancy and the applicants in each competition shall be advised of the name of the applicant selected to fill the Company job vacancy under CUPE jurisdiction. A late applicant shall be considered for a posted job provided the employee was absent from work due to sickness or vacation or away from established headquarters on the Company's business at the time the job was posted, and provided the application is received before another person is selected to fill the vacant position.

An employee who is absent from work on an approved leave of absence, vacation/lieu time, sick leave or WorkSafeBC may, prior to or during such absence, submit an application for consideration on a specific job posting(s). Such applicant must be available for interview within seven (7) calendar days of the closing date of the posting and if successful must be available to assume the position within fourteen (14) calendar days of the offer. Applications submitted in the foregoing manner shall be considered as null and void when the employee returns to work.

- (d) Job selections and promotions under the foregoing shall be on the basis of ability (to perform the vacant job) and seniority in that order.
Ability shall mean that an applicant has the formal education, skill, special training and experience required in the applicable job description and posting prepared by the Company or the equivalent knowledge and skill, and shall also include consideration of the employee's performance on the present job.

Where an employee who is junior in seniority is selected, their ability to perform the vacant job must be significantly and demonstrably higher than candidates who have greater seniority.

When assessing an employee's performance on their present job the Company will not consider any inadequacies that have not been brought to the employee's attention.

- (e) Although selection of employees under the foregoing paragraphs shall rest with the Company such selection shall be subject to the grievance procedure.
- (f) Where an employee has been selected to fill another position, the supervisor concerned shall release the employee as expeditiously as possible after being notified of the transfer by the Labour Relations Director or designate. Notwithstanding the above, if after six (6) weeks from date of notification the employee has not moved to the new job because of a delay ascribable to the Company, the employee will be paid the rate of the new position.

It is understood that any delays will not disadvantage an employee with respect to Article 7 (Employee Transfer and Termination) and Article 8 (Layoff and Recall).

7.11 Copies of Applications to Union

The Company will provide the Union with copies of the applications for Union job postings when the Union files a selection grievance with the Labour Relations Director or designate.

 - (iii) After the completion of three (3) consecutive years' service, one additional week's notice shall be given for each completed year of service up to a maximum of eight (8) weeks' notice.

- (a) Any documents referred to in (b) below which will form part of the employee's general record with the Company must be shown to the employee. The employee may write a rebuttal which must become part of the employee's file.
- (b) The Company will provide to the Union copies of all documents such as written confirmation of verbal warnings, written warnings, disciplinary notations or letters of reprimand and all such documents will be removed from the employee's personnel file provided the employee has maintained a clear record for a term twelve (12) months. Absences under Articles 15, 19.01, 21.05 or any leave without pay imposed as a result of a Company policy which exceeds thirty (30) calendar days are excluded from the calculation of the twelve (12) month period. Upon request the Company will return to the employee documents removed from their personnel file pursuant to this Article.
- (c) It is understood that any disciplinary action to be taken by the Company shall be administered in a timely manner from the point at which the Company becomes aware of the offence. The Company further agrees to make every reasonable effort to expedite Safety Investigations/Boards of Inquiry so as to ensure that any forthcoming discipline is delivered within an appropriate time period.

- (d) Letters of Expectation are not disciplinary and will be removed from the employee's personnel file after eighteen (18) months.

7.15 Employee Personnel Files

Employees are entitled to examine their own personnel file upon request to the Labour Relations Director or designate.

7.16 Temporary Vacancies

Where there is a need to fill a position on a temporary basis, preference will be given to CUPE LOCAL 7000 members in accordance with the provisions of Article 7.09. Such vacancies may be posted in accordance with Article 7.10 and will be filled on the basis of the selection criteria outlined in Article 7.10(d).

- (a) Temporary vacancies of over three (3) months in duration will be posted in accordance with Article 7.10.

Selections made under this provision will only be grievable by other members of the Department from which the selection was made.

- (c) The successful applicant for any temporary vacancy shall remain in the position for the full term of the vacancy [except as otherwise provided for in Article 7.08(d)], provided no performance problems are identified.

Employees occupying temporary jobs shall have the right to apply for regular vacancies which are posted. Should such an employee be the successful applicant, they may be required (at the Company's discretion) to remain in the temporary position for the full term prior to commencing the new regular position.

- (d) Regular employees who occupy permanent jobs and who are successful applicants for temporary jobs shall be considered to be regular employees in temporary jobs with the right to revert to their previous job should the temporary job become redundant. In the event a temporary job becomes a permanent job, it will be posted and if a regular employee filling the position is the successful candidate, then such regular employee's previous job may be considered vacant and may be posted and filled in the normal manner. In cases where the temporary job becomes a permanent job and the regular employee filling the temporary job is not the successful candidate, such employee shall revert to the previous position and the temporary employee shall be displaced which could result in termination.
- (e) In the event a part-time regular employee, who is filling a full-time temporary position of the same classification, is no longer required in the full-time position, then such employee will have the option of:
 - (i) displacing the most junior part-time regular employee who is filling a full-time temporary position of the same classification, or
 - (ii) returning to their original part-time regular position.

- (e) There shall be no compounding of premiums.
- (f) An employee who is scheduled or called out to work overtime more than four (4) hours prior to commencing their regular shift shall be entitled, whenever practicable, to eight (8) hours of rest from expiry of the overtime. The employee shall suffer no loss of pay for those hours of rest which coincide with their regular scheduled shift. However, upon expiry of the eight (8) hours rest period, the employee must return to work and complete their shift in order to qualify for full pay for their regular shift.

Notwithstanding the above, an employee whose overtime coincides with the commencement of their regular shift and their regular shift is greater than eight (8) hours may, with the approval of their supervisor, elect to take their eight (8) hour rest break during the final eight (8) hours of their regular shift. In this case the time from the beginning of their regular scheduled shift to the beginning of their rest break will be paid at straight time rates.

Should an employee who is scheduled or called out to work more than four (4) hours prior to commencing their regular shift, be required to work their regular scheduled shift with less than an eight (8) hour rest break, they will receive double time two hundred percent (200%) for those hours which coincide with the working hours of their normal shift, plus straight time for their regular scheduled shift.

11.02 Minimum Paid Periods

- (a) In the event employees are called out on a day they were scheduled to work, they shall be paid not less than an amount equal to four (4) hours at two hundred percent (200%) of their normal straight-time rate. This minimum shall not apply to overtime work immediately preceding or immediately following a regular scheduled shift.
- (b) In the event employees are called out on a day they were not scheduled to work, they shall be paid a minimum of four (4) hours at two hundred percent (200%) of their normal straight-time rate.

Any employee required to be on standby for less than a full week shall be paid at 2.14 hours at their straight time rate for each day they are on standby.

Where standby is required on a statutory holiday the employee will receive a total of ten (10) hours at their normal straight time rate.

- (b) Where operational requirements permit, any employee on standby will not be required to be on standby for more than two (2) consecutive weeks at one time.
- (c) It is understood that an employee on standby must carry an assigned pocket pager, be physically capable of undertaking such work and must respond for such work when called.
- (d) Employees called to work during the lunch period will have their lunch period rescheduled wherever possible. If rescheduling the lunch period is not possible, employees shall be paid for their normal lunch period at the prevailing overtime rate.
- (e) An employee will not be considered available to carry a pager while they are on a vacation or lieu day. For the purposes of pager assignment, a lieu day or vacation day will be deemed as the specific shift (i.e. the actual hours) the employee would have worked. Should an employee book vacation or lieu time during a period they are scheduled to carry the pager, it will be their responsibility to arrange alternate coverage with another employee for the complete pager block.
- (f) In conjunction with Article 11.06, employees who are on standby, and who are called out, to be paid for travel time from the outset of the telephone consultation. This is to clarify that although the travel time calculation is done at double-time rates for the length of time it takes to travel to work, equates to straight-time pay for the trip into work and the return trip home, and will be deemed as such.
- (g) Should an employee receive a second call out within forty-five (45) minutes of completing an initial call out assignment, they will receive double-time rates for all hours encompassing the two (2) assignments. Such overtime pay will be calculated from the outset of the telephone consultation for the first call out until the final departure from the jobsite for the second call out.

11.04 Assignment of Overtime and Standby Work

(Also refer to Article 11.09)

- (a) Required overtime will be requested of employees starting with the most senior to the most junior employee eligible and qualified to perform the work. In the event that no one agrees to work voluntarily, the most junior qualified employee will be required to work.
- (b) The assignment of overtime will be made through the overtime equalization system as per Article 11.09. Such system is subject to termination by either the Union or the Company as per Article 11.09.

- (c) Annual standby will be assigned on the basis of seniority or a process mutually agreed to by the Parties. For any additional standby assignments, the Company will establish a standby list that will be maintained in perpetuity and initially listed based on seniority. Once a standby shift has been signed, the employee will rotate to the bottom of the list. Employees who have signed a standby shift of three consecutive days or less will not be subject to the rotation. Both the standby list and the standby schedules will be posted. New hires or employees transferring from other departments will be placed at the bottom of the list.
- (d) When "Pre" or "Post" shift overtime of three (3) hours or less is required, it will be assigned on the basis of seniority from the qualified employees normally scheduled to work according to the established shift schedule.

This extension will not be used to circumvent off-day call outs and will be used during non-revenue hours only. The foregoing will also apply in Vehicle Maintenance with respect to First Aid coverage.

- (e) A sign-up sheet, by classification, for the allocation of overtime in excess of three (3) hours for the upcoming month will be posted in each department by the fifteenth (15th) of every month. - (f) For the purpose of assigning overtime, an employee shall not be considered to be on an off day until eight (8) hours have elapsed from the completion of their last shift, nor shall they be considered to be on an off day during the eight (8) hours immediately preceding their first shift.
- (g) Employees on vacation or lieu days will not be considered eligible for overtime except on their regularly scheduled off days which fall before, during, or after such vacation/lieu time. It shall be the employees' responsibility to advise the Company of their desire to be considered for off day overtime during such periods. For the purpose of assigning overtime, a vacation/lieu day shall be deemed as the actual shift the employee would have worked plus eight (8) hours before and eight (8) hours after the shift.
- (h) An overtime allocation list will be established by seniority from the sign-up sheet, with the most senior employee first and the most junior employee last.
- (i) Overtime will be assigned on a seniority basis starting with the most senior employee qualified on the list, subject to the provisions of Article 11.09 on overtime equalization.
- (j) Should this process not produce the required number of personnel, employees working "Pre" or "Post" shift overtime will be given the option of extending their overtime. In the event that this also fails to produce the required number, then the most junior qualified employee(s) currently on shift will be assigned until the requirement is met.
- (k) An employee working on a specific task who has not completed that task by the end of the shift may be asked to work overtime in order to complete the particular task, irrespective of seniority. This overtime, where practicable, will normally be restricted to three (3) hours.
- (l) In order for Leadhands or other employees to complete handovers, a Supervisor may authorize up to one-half (½) hour overtime where necessary, irrespective of seniority.

- (c) If an employee is called out and works more than four (4) hours, the Company will pay one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour in lieu of a meal at the prevailing overtime rate, or at the normal straight-time rate for an employee who is working an extra-hours assignment. If the call out extends beyond their normal eight (8) or ten (10) hour shift then the provisions of Article 11.05(a) apply.
- (d) Where work is prescheduled for a normal day off and employees have been notified on the previous day, the Company will not be required to provide a meal or pay for meal time if taken except where the employee works beyond their eight (8) or ten (10) hour shift when the provisions of Article 11.05(a) apply.

 - (v) Part-time employees shall not be considered eligible to work for more than six (6) consecutive days unless there is no other option. In such circumstances, the Company will have first exhausted the list of those employees eligible to work the extra-hours assignment who have not worked six (6) consecutive days, and will have exhausted the list of those employees who would be eligible to work the assignment on an overtime basis. Should this not produce the required number of personnel, the Company may then offer the assignment as extra-hours to those employees who have worked six (6) consecutive days.
- (e) Voluntary extra hours will be assigned amongst eligible, qualified employees starting with the most senior employee, unless they have declined in writing to be called for extra hours. If contact is not made with the senior employee, the next most senior employee will be called, (and so on), until the work is assigned.
- (f) For extra hours assignment procedure where there is a requirement for extra hours, these hours will be offered in order of seniority to those part-time SkyTrain Attendants who have indicated their desire to work. Such hours will be assigned as follows:

Should the extra hour selection not be made within the next pay period, another time which is mutually agreeable to the employee(s) and the Company shall be arranged. Such selection will be comprised of work which would not normally have been assigned as extra hours.

Although the highest priority will be in Field Operations and in Control, it is the intention that this system will be available to be implemented Company wide.

- (b) Required overtime will be assigned amongst eligible, qualified employees starting with the most senior employee, unless they have declined in writing to be called for overtime.
- (c) Employees may accept any hours offered. All overtime hours worked will be recorded to that employee and a running tally will be kept. Employees participating in a job share will be credited with double (2x) the overtime worked.
- (d) Overtime assignments will be made by seniority to eligible, qualified employees in order of the least overtime hours to the most overtime hours.
- (e) A listing of all overtime hours worked will be posted in each department on a weekly basis.
- (f) Overtime equalization will not be applicable to the assignment of:
 - pre and post shift overtime
 - extra hours allocation
 - special tasks (i.e. court, etc.)
 - training
 - relief positions
 - assignments requiring the attention of a specialist (i.e. Hegenscheidt lathe, first aid, etc.)
 - standby and standby callout
 - statutory holiday assignment.

It is understood that overtime equalization does not apply to the allocation of overtime hours to the areas above. However, overtime hours worked in any areas other than statutory holidays will be part of the running total of overtime hours worked by an employee (statutory holidays worked on a scheduled off-day will be part of the running total).

- (g) Overtime accepted and cancelled by an employee will not be considered, unless cancelled within forty-eight (48) hours of the shifts start time. Overtime cancelled by the Company will not be considered.
- (h) Overtime will be counted as is actually worked, except in the case of employees paid the minimum callout of four hours. In this case, four (4) hours will be counted. Any overtime extensions, reductions, meal breaks, etc. will be considered. Any occurrences of triple time will be counted as regular overtime hours.
- (i) Where overtime is assigned out of order, on a repeated basis, the Union and Company will meet to correct conditions giving rise to such misassignment.
- (j) Where it can be shown that the responsible supervisor has been given prior notice that overtime has been assigned out of order, and such supervisor does not take remedial action, the grievor shall be paid one hundred percent (100%) for all hours lost without requirement to work.
- (k) Eligibility for overtime will be determined in accordance with current practices. (i.e. off days, rest periods, vacations, etc.) (Also refer to Article 11.04)

- (l) Upon the completion of three (3) years, a trailing reset will commence. For each calendar day moved ahead, a day will fall off the front so that the running total is always for a three (3) year block backwards from the current date.
- (m) New employees will be given the departmental average of overtime hours. Each time an employee moves from part time to full time they will be given the full time average in effect at the time of the move. Employees moving from one department to another will carry their hours with them, unless a different system was being used in their home department, in which case they will be given the average of their new department.
- (n) An employee who is ill or absent for less than one (1) year will maintain the hours the employee had when booking off, subject to the trailing reset. After one (1) year of absence, when such employees return, they will be given the departmental average of overtime hours.
- (o) The entire system will be computerized.
- (p) The foregoing procedure is applicable to all departments, unless a department receives unanimous consent to follow a different procedure

12.06 Twelve Hour Shift Schedules

Twelve (12) hour shift schedules shall be implemented for the following work group:

Control Operators

The twelve (12) hour shift schedule may be terminated by either the Company or the Union by giving the other Party thirty (30) days written notice of such intention. The Parties may also mutually agree to terminate the twelve (12) hour shift schedule within fourteen (14) days after such agreement to terminate is reached. Should the twelve (12) hour shift schedule be terminated, the Control Operators will revert to an eight (8) and/or ten (10) hour shift schedule.

Scheduled working hours shall be the equivalent of eighty (80) hours per pay period averaged over a fifty-two (52) week year. A total of 2080 hours shall constitute a work year.

With "pay averaging", Control Operators' pay will be based on eighty (80) hours per pay period. To accomplish this, "Compensation Days" will be used to ensure that there are no more than 2080 regular hours scheduled over twenty-six (26) pay periods. Comp Days will in effect become scheduled days off. The number of Comp Days will be calculated for each Control Operator at the beginning of the schedule year.

Comp Days will be booked at vacation sign-up after all vacation and lieu time have been signed.

Due to the fact that Comp Days are scheduled days off:

- Control Operators are entitled to work Overtime on any of their Comp Days;
- Control Operators are not paid by either the Company or the insurance company for any sick time which occurs on a Comp Day, nor can the employee cancel a Comp Day in order to be paid;

Adjustments may be required if the employee changes shift or enters the Control Department part way through the schedule year. Adjustments will, whenever possible, be made in the same schedule year.

If a Control Operator leaves the Company or moves to another department, their Comp Time hours must be reconciled. Should the employee owe the Company, the hours will be deducted from their pay. If the Company owes the employee, such time will be paid to the employee at straight time.

However, the Company maintains the right to leave slots vacant. Should the Company choose to fill a slot, the following procedure will be followed:

- (a) (i) Should an employee in a regular slot wish to move to another slot of the same classification within their department, they may place their name on a wait list for the desired shift. When a vacant slot is going to be filled, it shall be awarded on a seniority basis from the waitlist in place at the time the decision is reached by the Company to fill the slot. Once the list is removed, no further names may be added, and the senior employee whose name is on the list will be committed to make the requested move.
 - (ii) Once the slot change has been made, all other change requests which may have been previously submitted by the selected employee shall be considered as void. Should the employee wish to move to another slot, they must re-submit their name to the wait list for the desired shift.
- (b) Employees occupying a temporary slot must remain in the temporary slot for the duration of the vacancy and are not eligible for further moves unless it comes about as a result of the job selection process.
- (c) Employee requests for shift slot changes shall not be unreasonably denied, provided that the normal shift slot selection of other employees is not adversely affected and operational requirements are met.
- (d) Slot moves shall be effective at the commencement of a pay period. There will be no penalty assessed to the Company for employee change requests which result in irregularities (i.e. short pay periods, more than six (6) consecutive days worked, more than eighty (80) hours in a pay period, less than two (2) consecutive days off). A one-time adjustment to the final shift of the previous schedule and first shift of the new schedule may be necessary in order to accommodate eight (8) hours off between shifts.
- (e) After step (a) has been completed, an employee entering a department shall, on the basis of seniority, have a choice of those shift slots which have been designated as available at the time of their entry. Should the employee subsequently wish to change their slot, then the procedure as outlined in step (a) shall apply.
- (f) Employees moving from part-time to full-time, or vice-versa, shall be treated in the same manner as new employees entering the department in accordance with item (e).
- (g) Regular part-time employees shall have the ability to sign for slot changes within the part-time schedules. However, part-time employees shall not be permitted to sign wait lists for full time slots and vice-versa.
- (h) Employees who have moved as a result of a slot being filled on a temporary basis shall revert back to their regular permanent slot at the completion of the term. As per item (d), any irregularities which may occur as an outcome of such moves, shall not result in a penalty to the Company.

In the event the Company considers it necessary to use guidelines other than those outlined above, the Company shall meet with the Union to discuss the matter.

Exceptions to the guidelines will be discussed with the Union in order to minimize, where practicable, the effect on individuals and any positive or negative effects will be distributed as equitably as possible among all the employees in each department.

(2) Consultative Procedure

At the time of the development of the annual shift schedules, the following procedure shall be used in designing shift schedules:

An employee shall earn annual vacation entitlement for any vacation year on a pro-rated basis* of the entitlement from the date of hire. Annual vacation entitlement with pay shall be as follows:

Employees shall select their vacation periods in order of seniority as defined in this Agreement. However, only one (1) vacation period shall be selected by seniority until all employees in the signing group have selected one (1) period. Subsequently, all employees in the signing group who have chosen to take their vacation in broken periods shall select in order of seniority for a second vacation period and again for subsequent periods until all periods are chosen.

Employees relieving on a higher paid job at the time their vacation is scheduled will have their annual vacation paid at the higher rate if it is both preceded and followed by working time on the higher job and if there is a minimum of twenty (20) working days at the relief level. However, if employees are required to postpone their period of annual vacation in order to carry out the duties of a higher paid position for an uninterrupted period of a temporary transfer and must therefore take their annual vacation at some other less convenient time, they shall nevertheless qualify for the higher rate for vacations as set out in the sentence immediately preceding.

13.08 Proration of Annual Vacation Entitlement

- (a) Absence due to sick leave, income continuance or WorkSafeBC claim. In any case where an accumulation of such absences exceeds six (6) calendar months in a twelve (12) month period, vacation entitlement in the vacation year following the return to work will be reduced by one-sixth ($\frac{1}{6}$) for each full month of absence in excess of six (6) months.

Subsequently, all employees in the signing group who have chosen to take their vacation in separate periods shall select in order of seniority as above for each remaining period until their entitlement is chosen.
- (f) Employee requests for a vacation change shall not be unreasonably withheld, provided that the normal vacation selection of other employees is not adversely affected and operational requirements are met.

13.10 Vacation and Weekly Indemnity

A vacation shall not be rescheduled or extended because of a disability or illness which begins after the last scheduled working day immediately prior to the commencement of a vacation period. If an employee is absent on weekly indemnity immediately preceding the commencement of a period of vacation, then the vacation will be rescheduled on request, if work arrangements permit, within the current vacation year.

If it is not practical to reschedule a vacation then the employee shall have the following options:

- (1) If the period of illness occurs during the last three months of the vacation year the employee shall be allowed to reschedule vacation to be taken before March 31st of the following vacation year, or

This occurs in the following shift combination examples:
Day/Night
Afternoon/Night

Assignment of Work

The following is an outline of the procedure which will be adhered to when determining which employee(s) will be assigned to work on a statutory holiday.

- (1) Wherever practicable the Company will post the number of people required to work in each department or section twenty-two (22) days prior to the holiday. (When the full shift complement is required, such notification will also be issued twenty-two (22) days prior to the statutory holiday).
- (2) The work identified on the posting will only be available to those normally assigned to work the statutory holiday according to the established shift schedule.

- (4) The required number of employee(s) will be selected from those wishing to work on the basis of seniority. The most senior employee(s) who have indicated an interest will be assigned until the requirement is met. (In Control, COs who are normally scheduled to work, and who have signed the sheet, will be offered the work first on the basis of seniority. RCOs who are normally scheduled to work, and who have signed the sheet, will be offered the work next on the basis of seniority.)

- (5) If an insufficient number of people on shift indicate their interest to work, an off day call out will take place, in order of seniority. (In Control, COs who are eligible to work will be offered the work first on the basis of seniority. RCOs who are eligible to work will be offered the work next on the basis of seniority.)
- (6) If this does not produce the required number of employees, the most junior employee(s) will be assigned starting with those who are normally scheduled to work and, if necessary followed by those who are off shift, until the requirement is met. (In Control, the most junior COs who are normally scheduled to work, but who did not sign the sheet, will be assigned first. The most junior COs who are eligible to work, but who are off, will be assigned next. The most junior RCOs, normally scheduled to work, but who did not sign the sheet, will be assigned last.)

 - (a) Being paid under the provisions of 12.03(b), or

ARTICLE 15.00
SICKNESS BENEFITS
(Also refer to Article 13.10)

The Company agrees to establish a sickness benefit plan to operate as follows:

15.01 Weekly Indemnity (Effective January 1st, 2024)

Weekly Indemnity premiums 100% Company paid.

- (a) Eight (8) individual sick days will be allocated to each employee on an annual basis. Such days will be paid at one hundred percent (100%) of their hourly rate as per Appendix A.
- (b) A maximum of five (5) sick days may be used consecutively. If the absence exceeds five (5) days, the employee will file a Weekly Indemnity Claim. For all subsequent absences due to illness, the employee will file a Weekly Indemnity Claim after the third (3rd) consecutive day off.
- (c) The above sick days will be paid directly by the Company. The days will renew each calendar year on January 1st but will not carry over from year to year.
- (d) The Company reserves the right to request a medical note at its discretion after four (4) consecutive sick days have been taken. This medical note will be provided within twenty-one (21) calendar days.

Each incident of sick absences will be subject to a three (3) day waiting period. Employees are entitled to use the above noted sick days to cover the waiting period until the sick days are exhausted. Weekly Indemnity Claim Benefits are payable at eighty percent (80%) on the fourth (4th) day and each day after up to twenty-six (26) weeks.

Benefits are payable from the first day of disability due to accident at a rate of one hundred percent (100%) of regular pay on the first day, one hundred percent (100%) of regular pay on the second day, and eighty percent (80%) of regular pay for each day thereafter. Benefits are payable for a maximum of twenty-six (26) weeks. Weekly indemnity Claims will be forwarded to the insurance carrier with a completed "Attending Physician's Statement". The company agrees to use its best efforts to ensure the insurance carrier processes such claims in a timely manner.

In recognition of the fact that some part-time employees work in excess of their regularly scheduled weekly hours, the Parties agree that the Company will amend the Weekly Indemnity plan so that benefits take into account such employees' average weekly hours. Specifically, the first two (2) weeks (e.g. fourteen [14] calendar days) of approved Weekly Indemnity Claims will continue to be paid on the basis of regularly scheduled hours. For the remainder of the claim, benefits will be calculated on the basis of the employee's average weekly hours over the twenty-six (26) week period prior to claim commencement, exclusive of overtime. In no case will the Weekly Indemnity calculation be based on anything less than the employee's regularly scheduled hours.

For the purposes of this Article a day of disability shall be defined as follows:

"A day in which the employee is disabled but does not include a day in which an employee has worked three (3) hours or more, except as completion of a regular night shift that commenced the previous day." The costs for medical forms or letters required for the Weekly Indemnity plan shall be reimbursed by the Company.

15.02 Weekly Indemnity/WorkSafeBC Benefits Advance

An employee who submits a claim for Weekly Indemnity or WorkSafeBC Benefits may make application to the Company for an advance should there be a delay of their benefit payment beyond the employee's normal pay date. Such advance will be limited to the maximum amount payable under the Weekly Indemnity or WorkSafeBC program and will not be unreasonably denied.

15.03 Employment Insurance Rebate

The Company will remit to employees their portion of the Employment Insurance Rebate on an annual basis. This will be paid to each employee in the last pay period of February.

When it is not practical to offer training to the most senior employee(s) first, such employee(s) will not be disadvantaged with respect to applying Article 7.10(d), in that the lack of such training will not be used as a determining factor. ARTICLE 29.00
REHABILITATION FOR DISABLED EMPLOYEES IN RECEIPT OF WEEKLY INDEMNITY AND LONGTERM DISABILITY BENEFITS

Duty to Accommodate

In circumstances where a member of the CUPE bargaining unit may be unable to perform the core duties of their position due to a temporary or permanent disability, the Company and the Union, together with the affected employee, shall meet to discuss and to consider the available evidence regarding the existence and nature of the disability and, if necessary, options with respect to the accommodation of the employee. The parties agree to work together to consider whether and how the employee's disability can best be accommodated without causing undue hardship to the Company or the Union. The affected employee shall participate and cooperate fully in this process.

When the Company has made reasonable efforts to accommodate the employee to the point of undue hardship and the employee has been absent for more than thirty-six (36) months due to illness or injury and there is no reasonable prospect of recovery or return to work, the Company may terminate the employee.

Under certain circumstances, it may be beneficial for an employee who is recovering from a disability to participate in an Early Intervention Rehabilitation Program. Such a program may consist of a Graduated Return to Work over a specified period of time, or Transitional Work (either the temporary modification to the employee's regular job or temporary placement in an alternate position). In creating a rehabilitation program, the Company will take into consideration the following:

- The nature and expected duration of the employee's disability;
- The level of activity the employee is capable of performing;
- The employee's education, training and experience;
- The core duties required in the employee's normal classification;
- The availability of other positions and/or work in the Company which the employee might reasonably be capable of performing.

Should a Graduated Return to Work or Transitional Work not create undue hardship, a rehabilitation program will be initiated within a reasonable time.

The program will be developed with the co-operation of the insurance carrier, the employee, the employee's physician, the occupational health nurse and/or the Company doctor. The Union will be consulted on these arrangements, or consulted if a variance in the terms of the Collective Agreement is necessary.

An employee in receipt of Weekly Indemnity benefits who returns to their regular position on a graduated basis shall receive their regular hourly rate for those hours in which they are able to work. In addition, the employee shall receive eighty percent (80%) of regular pay for those regular scheduled hours in which they were unable to work due to the medical disability.

An employee in receipt of Weekly Indemnity benefits who is placed temporarily in another position shall receive the regular hourly rate of the position into which they have been placed for those hours in which they are able to work. However, in no case shall they receive less than eighty percent (80%) of the rate of their regular position. In addition they shall receive eighty percent (80%) of regular pay for those regular scheduled hours in which they are unable to work due to the medical disability.

Employees in receipt of Long-Term Disability who participate in an approved rehabilitation program shall be governed by the provisions of the Long-term Disability plan with respect to the integration of wages and benefits.

The Company and the Union Executive will meet on a semi-annual basis to discuss staffing levels, including the ratio of part-timers to full-timers. In such meetings, the Company agrees to give reasonable consideration to suggestions the Union may make respecting the staffing level to be established in particular locations and the ratio of part-timers to full-timers.

Once per year, as part of the Company's shift development process, the Company will meet with the Union and provide the Union with an overview of the staffing levels being proposed for the forthcoming year, and will give consideration to suggestions the Union may make.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #20

Job Sharing

The Parties acknowledge the merits of offering flexibility in the way in which work is scheduled. Furthermore, it is recognized that most departments have adopted various options, such as a compressed and varied work week, and/or part-time employment. In order to offer a similar opportunity to a group of employees who do not have such options, the Parties have agreed to implement a Job Sharing Program.

1. Definition

Job Sharing is defined as dividing all the functions of one regular full-time position between two employees, each of whom works part-time in a manner that provides full-time coverage for the position. The combined performance of the two incumbents will be such that all the tasks, responsibilities, and hours of the full-time position description will be met. The Parties agree that it is not the intent of the Job Sharing Program to purposely cause the elimination of positions.

2. Application

Employees who wish to establish a Job Sharing arrangement must submit a written proposal to the Union. The Union shall then forward to the Company any proposals which they deem appropriate. Such proposals will outline the feasibility and the operating details necessary to implement; such as commencement day, days and hours worked, absence coverage, the job owner for the purposes of PSPP, and sharing of responsibilities:

- (a) The request for Job Sharing must come from two (2) qualified individuals; at least one of which must currently occupy the classification which is to be shared. The applicants will acknowledge that they will share one position only and that the other vacated position may be posted as a regular status vacancy. Both applicants must be ready, willing and able to share the position without requirements of any additional training or trial period to meet the full job requirements.
- (b) Both employees still retain the right to bid, through the normal bidding procedures, on any position that they are qualified for.
- (c) Either employee may terminate the arrangement, at any time, with the understanding that they are also terminating their employment (unless it is to accept another position awarded through the normal bidding process). The remaining employee will then have the choice of finding another qualified employee to share, or reverting to full-time (see "4. Termination" below).
- (d) If the remaining incumbent is able to find another qualified employee to share, who is acceptable to the Company, all of the above will apply.

The Company shall retain the right to approve Job Sharing arrangements on their individual merit and to determine the details of such arrangements. Job Sharing arrangements will not be unreasonably denied. The Company may terminate such arrangement at any time with appropriate notice.

3. Working Conditions

Two (2) employees will share one (1) full-time position so that their combined hours of work shall equate to forty (40) hours per week. Daily hours of work will be as per the Collective Agreement. Each employee will normally work forty (40) hours per pay period. Job Sharing arrangements are limited to split days, weeks, single pay period, or two pay periods.

Incumbents will be eligible to participate in Benefit Plans in accordance with Articles 15, 21 and 26. Vacation and Statutory Holidays will be based upon each incumbent's seniority and length of service with the Company prorated to the amount of hours worked.

Upon signing of the Job Sharing Agreement and prior to implementation, the Job Sharing partners shall:

- (a) Designate which partner will be working on each scheduled working day for the entire period of the sign-up.
- (b) Balance the total hours worked per pay period, or two pay periods, equally between both Parties.
- (c) Submit the scheduled working days of each partner for the sign-up period to the Manager or appropriate person within the department.

Any overtime worked will be accordance with the provisions of Article 11.07

Furthermore, Job Sharing participants may accept additional employment outside the Company provided that, in the opinion of the Company, this does not conflict with their position or interfere with the schedule, duties or responsibilities of the employee in the job sharing arrangement with the Company.

4. Termination

In the event that Job Sharing of a full-time regular position is terminated by the Company, the most senior of the incumbents originally from the classification of the shared position shall have vested rights to the position. The provisions of Article 8 will apply to the displaced Job Sharing partner.

In the event either Job Sharing partner terminates the arrangement (provisions of 2(c) above apply), the remaining partner shall have the option of finding a partner suitable to the Company within two (2) weeks or reverting to full-time status.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #21
Tool Kit Allowances

The Company policy and procedure dealing with employee-assigned tool kits is outlined in Company Policy dated December 1, 1987. The Policy states that the Company will provide tool kits to all permanent fulltime Technicians, Tradespersons and Servicepersons in accordance with their trades and departments.

Temporary full-time Technicians, Tradespersons and Servicepersons will be responsible for supplying their own tools.

Temporary Technicians, Tradespersons and Servicepersons will be provided with $0.70 cents per hour tool allowance.

If additional positions are added to the temporary list, the Company agrees to meet the Union to establish a Tool Allowance for that position.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #24
Casual Employees

With respect to the use of Casual employees, the Parties have agreed to the following provisions on a trial basis during the term of this Collective Agreement, notwithstanding the other provisions of Article 1.13:

1. The Company may hire Casual employees to work in administrative capacities for periods of up to, but not exceeding, eight (8) consecutive weeks.
2. At the request of either Party, a meeting will be convened to discuss any matter related to the use of Casuals and/or the operation of this Letter.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #38
Variation of Article 10 for Scheduling Assistants

The Parties acknowledge the objective of maintaining Field Operations Staff levels at an appropriate level is to provide the required service and to ensure the safety of the public and employees. The Field Operations Scheduling Assistants role is to maintain those numbers via Overtime/Extra Hours call-outs.

The Parties acknowledge that discussions on the issue of workload for the Field Operations Scheduling Assistants have taken place since August 2005.

As a result of these discussions, the 2006 Collective Agreement included Article 11 that proposed a Joint Committee be formed for the purpose of implementing an Automated System for conducting Overtime/Extra Hours call-outs. The committee was unable to identify pre-existing solutions for the Automated System; however this remains the Parties' ongoing goal. This was part of the recommendation to address the workload issue for the Scheduling Assistants.

In addition to this, the Company has created a Relief Scheduling Assistant position to provide vacation/illness relief.

The Parties acknowledge the merits of offering flexibility in the way in which work is scheduled. The eight hour day presently implemented does not adequately allow scheduling staff the time to complete their tasks. The Scheduling Assistants have identified a compressed work week schedule that would provide the Company with enhanced coverage and would address some of the issues that has proven to be challenging over the last number of years.

The modified shift would supply seven day coverage and would consist of ten (10) hour days. The three Scheduling Assistants would each work four (4) ten (10) hour days and their days of work would be staggered over the seven day week.

The Parties agree that there will be no Afternoon or Night Shifts implemented.

The statutory holidays will be observed or banked as mandated by Company Operational Requirements and Article 14 of the Collective Agreement.

This ten (10) hour schedule may be terminated by either the Company or the Union by giving the other Party thirty (30) days' written notice of such intention. Should the ten (10) hour schedule be terminated, all employees will revert to previous eight (8) hour schedule.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #40
Standardized Work Practices Plant Technician and Plant Support Equipment Technician

The introduction of standardized work practices will improve productivity, work quality, reduction of out of service time and lower costs while ensuring that the work is completed in a safe manner. Efficiency that results from standardized work practices will benefit the Company and broaden the skills of the employees.

In exchange for standardized practices, incumbents in the above job classifications will receive sixty-two cents ($0.62) per hour wage adjustment effective September 1, 2010. This is in recognition for their agreement to participate in the development of effective training modules. It is understood that incumbents will participate in available training modules and, in recognition of this increased job flexibility; on August 31, 2011 the incumbents will receive a further wage adjustment to equal that of the Technician rate (i.e. Vehicle Technician rate).

The Company and the Union will meet within ninety (90) days of ratification to discuss module based training that will enhance and build consistency in the existing skills of the incumbents in these job classifications. The Company will design and introduce the new training to facilitate the evolution and implementation of standardized work practices. Incumbents will be used as subject matter experts to assist the Department in the development and validation of the training. Where required, the Training Department and external expertise will be used as a further resource. It is required that incumbents will apply standard work practices in the workplace.

Future vacancies in these job classifications will be filled with a Tradesperson who possesses a Trades Qualification. New hires will be paid in accordance with Article 7.02 and during this period will receive training. Employees will be required to use new skills as the result of the training.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #44
Holding Pool

The parties agree to the following provisions on a trial basis during the term of this Collective Agreement. Some positions, where agreed upon by the Company and the Union, will be filled from a holding list of employees with pre-existing qualifications who have submitted an expression of interest and provided performance is satisfactory. All jobs will be posted to allow newly qualified and/or interested applicants to apply. The Union retains the right to grieve entrance into holding pool and the job selection and will be given updated lists of those in each holding pool as well as their seniority. Employees in a holding pool can refuse a vacant position. Employees can go into more than one pool at a time based on their eligibility.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #53 (NEW)

 - (h) Should the PSPP Benefit Plan(s) be eliminated, eligible retired employees will continue to receive the coverage of the Company's Benefit Plan unless stated otherwise in Article 21.
 - (i) An agreed Arbitrator will remain seized of any issues arising out of this LOU.
